COVID-19 SAFETY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT -- LIABILITY WAIVER AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS

The Georgia Educational Technology Conference (GaETC) and the Georgia International Convention Center (GICC) are working diligently to plan for a safe experience for all attendees in accordance with guidelines from local health authorities. From interaction with attendees, to enhanced cleaning and sanitation procedures and better utilization of meeting space for social distancing, GaETC will revise our processes to support the safety of everyone attending. Prior to the Conference, GaETC will share all event and hotel safety plans with attendees so everyone will know what is expected prior to arrival.

For the health and safety of all attendees, GaETC is complying with applicable health and safety requirements and CDC recommendations to hold the in-person event. We will need the assistance of all attendees to accomplish this as effectively as possible.

By registering for the GaETC Conference, YOU AGREE for your safety and the safety of all attendees, you will not attend the Conference if you have any symptoms of illness or have had recent exposure to COVID-19. You will agree to engage in responsible health and safety conduct consistent with CDC recommendations both prior to and while attending GaETC. You will also agree to comply with all COVID-related procedures implemented by GaETC and GICC including procedures related to mask-wearing and social distancing, refraining from activities that carry higher COVID-related risk, or otherwise.

YOU further AGREE to RELEASE, WAIVE, and FOREVER DISCHARGE any and all liability, claims, and demands of whatever kind or nature against GaETC and its affiliated partners and sponsors. You acknowledge and understand that participation at GaETC includes possible exposure to and illness from infectious diseases and you knowingly and freely assume all such risks related to illness and infectious diseases.
